JUM

ARIES (March 20th - April 19th)

The New Moon, making its monthly appearance, will trick you into thinking that you are a werewolf. You will spend your whole day howling and will eventually get arrested for being a public nuisance.

LUCKY DAY: Yesterday

TAURUS (April 20th - May 20th)

Being a bit of a bullish person, you walk around everywhere with an earring through your nose. Well, you do in my little picture. Erm, looking into the future, I see water. Maybe, sometime soon, you will have a bath, or perhaps a shower. Who knows?

LUCKY DAY: Last Thursday

GEMINI (May 21st - June 20th)

Now is the time to start preparing for Christmas. You want to beat the mad festive rush and ensure that you get all the bargains before everybody else does. You may even decide to put up your tree and decorations now too.

LUCKY DAY: 32nd May

CANCER (June 21st - July 22nd)

Looking at the tea-leaves at the bottom of my tea-cup, I am slightly worried since I made my tea with a tea bag. However, the tea-leaves have a fascinating story to tell. It's all about a young girl called Little Red Riding Hood. You should read it one day.

LUCKY DAY: Not today. Sorry!

LEO (July 23rd - August 22nd)

Are you a lion? If so, how are you able to read this? Being a lion has both its advantages and its drawbacks. Okay, so maybe you are the king of the jungle, but when it comes to being socially accepted, you, as a lion, stand no chance.

LUCKY DAY: You choose

VIRGO (August 23rd - September 22nd)

The alignment of the planets and stars tell me that your life is going to suddenly get better in ways which you cannot imagine. Love, wealth, luck, fame - they are all coming your way. Hang on! That's not a star. That's an aeroplane. Oh, well, maybe things aren't going to be so great. Never mind...

LUCKY DAY: Not in the near future

LIBRA (September 23rd - October 22nd)

Basically, there is nothing that you can do to improve on your own perfect little life. Nope, nothing, so sit back and relax and watch the world go by and so on and so forth. Hmm, I wish I was a Libra. Oh, blimey! I am.

LUCKY DAY: Everyday

SCORPIO (October 23rd - November 21st)

The New Moon will be in your house from Monday, so tidy up, offer it drinks, biscuits and suchlike and ensure that it returns to its orbital position with a smile on its face. You only get one chance to make a first impression, so make the most of it.

LUCKY DAY: 4th December 2037

SAGITTARIUS (Nov 22nd - Dec 21st)

A wave of optimism will enter your life soon. What's it doing there though? If it's intruding in your personal space, tell it where to go. Show it who's boss. Make sure it knows that waves of optimism are not welcome in your life.

LUCKY DAY: I dunno

CAPRICORN (December 22nd - January 19th)

You need a change. Whether it's a holiday to Skegness for a couple of days, or a full blown sex change, it'll do you the world of good and you'll eternally thank me for pointing out your need for change. Well, you'd better thank me. It'll make me feel much better.

LUCKY DAY: Your 8th birthday

AQUARIUS (January 20th - Feb 18th)

If you are anything like that man in the picture, you are one strange person, walking around in water, wearing a crown and holding a giant gold fork. My advice would be to take a look in the mirror and ask yourself: "Am I mad?" I think you are.

LUCKY DAY: Tuesday

PISCES (February 19th - March 19th)

Sometime this month, you will receive a phone bill. If your name isn't Bill, you won't get one. For some reason, you will decide that life is like a box of cornflakes, and then you'll try to explain why but fail miserably, then change your mind and decide that life is like a tunnel instead.

LUCKY DAY: 6th June 897 B.C.
